

THE EMU POINT BOWLER 23/10/17

SCROUNGERS had 15 players with double up prize money on Tuesday due to not finishing the week before. Winner was visitor Jeff Barnes, 2nd Gib Trethowan.

Good to see Ron Preston back who won the plate.

Mid Beach had a good turnout of 24 teams to their Split Fours Tournament on Tuesday and Wednesday. Des Forbes featured in the winning team along with his old compatriots from Gnowangerup, Kevin Heberle, Allan Shaddick and Bill Seward.

THURSDAY SOCIAL DAY. 36 players. Winners Paul Groves Ray Lewis and Barney Doyle. Second was Clive Smith, Marion Marden and Ron Brown. I called 2nd place because Marion complained that she never got a mention in the newsletter.

Third went to John Bryant, Jean Vondeling and Dennis Tranter.

The AGM of the Sporting Club was held on Monday evening. Newly elected office bearers are - President Richard Sounness, Vice President Murray Hall.

Bowls delegate - Wally Mycock. Tennis Delegate - Colin Veale.

Committee members – Elaine Hewson, Murray Field, John Richards, Mark Loveridge, Peter Drygan and Gus Woithe.

John Richards recommended the new Sporting Club Constitution which he and others have been working on for months. That was passed at the meeting. Thanks for all your diligent work John.

Have you been to the emupointbowlingclub.net.au website? You might have to put the full name in because the old website of emupointsportingclub.com keeps coming up and we don't want to go there. John has all sorts of information there on the new site including the new constitution in the near future. Please send any interesting pics to him at adigital@bigpond.net.au.

On Sunday the Denmark Bowling Club hosted there very well attended Mixed Bethany Triples event. Three teams from Emu Point travelled out there but the greens were way too slick for all but the locals. Winners were Shaun Woodwood, Lorraine Bremner and Wally Pederick with Ash Cooper, Bluey and Lyn Howard second

Find some friends and come to the Melbourne Cup Luncheon and games at the Club. If you haven't been before it's a good day. Tickets are available at the office on Monday and Thurs. morning. Phone Sheryl 98441156.
