

NOVEMBER 15, 2020

THE EMU POINT BOWLER

Emu Point men played their Triples Championship final today Sunday. Congratulations to the winners, young guns Matt Mitchell and Todd Jefferis teamed with experienced player Wal Mycock to defeat Doug Wright, Andy MacFarlane and John Stone in a high quality game.

In the Championship Triples Plate, Len Mason, Peter Hewson and Jim Hyde took the honours from Phil Wegner, Richie Sounness and Ian Campbell.

Rieva the poodle was wondering what was going on as the winners celebrated and the losers drowned their sorrows after the game.

Bowls WA produce the Jack Hi magazine quarterly. If you don't pick up a copy at the Club you can google Jack Hi and check it out at your leisure. Also to check out who and where you are playing pennants and results including ladder. Go to Bowls WA on your phone or computer or ipad.

Click country > country pennants> lower great southern icon> pin which division you are interested in> click relevant game >click on rink to find your team or result.

PENNANT RESULTS. MENS Red 1st Div. def. Mid Beach Gold 5/1 to put them on top of the ladder. 2nd Div. Purple went down to top team Albany Brown 2/4. 3rd Div. White def. Mid Beach Lime in a thriller. Paul Groves last bowl drive swung the score 7 points to win 44-43. EP Black lost to Mid Beach 0/6. LADIES 1st Div. are on top of the ladder defeating Denmark 4/0.

2nd Div. lost to Albany Gold 0/4.