THE EMU POINT BOWLER

There were 33 players at scroungers this week. The winner was Andy McFarlane who beat perennial winner Phil Ramsden into second place.

THURSDAYS pairs competition saw the improving Geoff Sadgrove, team with Yvonne Shalders to win the day from Terry Martin and John Carpenter.

FRIDAY. A large crowd of spectators were treated to a fantastic display of bowls in the final of the Club Singles Championship. Jon Sharp is looking particularly pleased with himself after winning a nerve wracking last few ends from his rival Mattie Mitchell.

The Championship Plate was also held and after a few errant bowls from Steven Tuffley that let Terry Martin gain the upper hand, Steve eventually put together a winning run to win the Plate. They both look exhausted but happy here. Thanks to those members who provided a BBQ to follow.

There was a minutes silence to remember past member Merv Martin who died this week. Our sympathy goes out to his brother Terry.

PENNANTS. It was the Derby this week between 1st Division Red and Purple. Purple won two games but lost the aggregate to Red 60-48.

3rd Div. travelled to Frankland but were beaten soundly ½ - 5 ½.

Mid Point travelled to Mt Barker but lost 2-4.

Next Saturday evening there will be a hot pot tea at the Club after pennants for those who wish to celebrate or commiserate or just relax and have some fun.
