

8th DECEMBER 2019

THE EMU POINT BOWLER

An invitation was extended to the Emu Point Club from Outlook Villages to participate in their inaugural Ultimate Bowls Competition. They have excellent facilities and greens under lights. The evening was a great success and with the locals showing lots of promise. Here Brian Richardson had his work cut out against a stylish local bowler.

SCROUNGERS winner on Tuesday was birthday boy Kevin Crane (82 on Sunday), 2nd was Paul Groves and 3rd the young Ken Luff.

On Thursday 34 players enjoyed a social day with Terry Martin and Gus Woithe combining to win from Len Mason, Peter Haywood and Leo Tuffley.

John Stone came down to earth with a thud, much to the amusement of the nearby punters when his bowls started going awry last week. It wasn't until he realised that some dirty prankster had reversed one of his bowls stickers that he managed to get them going in the right direction. He has vowed to get his own back very soon.

Snaggers has initiated a Wrong Bias Sin Bin.

$2 goes in for every transgression along with the name on a ticket. A ticket will be drawn at seasons end and the winner can enjoy the spoils.

There will be no Mid Year General Meeting as per fixtures book as things are going well. If anyone has an issue then speak to President Mal and it can be discussed at the next executive meeting on Tuesday.

PENNANTS Mens Red won 5-1 from Golf. Purple won 6-0 from Mt Barker. Golf White beat Emu Point 3 ½ - 2 ½. Mid Point lost 1-5 to golf Blue.

Ladies 1st div. won 3-1 from Golf while 2nd Div. lost 1-3 to Albany Gold.

Norma Adams funeral is to be held at Bethany Funeral home on Monday 9th December at 2 PM. No guard of honour is respectfully requested. There will be a Wake at the Club afterwards.
